

Meal Volunteers

Meal volunteers purchase, prep and cook a meal or purchase already prepared food for our Team Members for one of their training days. Meals can vary from 15-50 people. Meals are your choice and should include some alternative diet options (gluten free, dairy free, peanut free).

Direct questions to Anna Johnson: annaj@lovethyneighborhood.org.

Days & Times (be ready 15 minutes before serving time)

- Gathered breakfast - biweekly Fridays: 10 a.m. to 10:30 a.m.
- Gathered lunch - biweekly Fridays: 12 to 12:30 p.m.
- Opening training breakfast - Wed, Thu, and Fri the weeks of Labor Day, Memorial Day, and New Years Day: 8:15 to 9 a.m.
- Opening training lunch - Wed, Thu, and Fri the weeks of Labor Day, Memorial Day, and New Years Day: 12 to 1 p.m.

Duration

- Could be just once, bi-weekly, monthly, etc.

Demographics

- Anybody
- Great for families and groups (corporate, church, neighborhood, schools, etc.)

Qualifications

- Must know how to cook OR purchase already prepared food
- Follows basic food safety guidelines for feeding large groups
- Willing to provide options for food allergies/sensitivities as requested (we'll let you know in advance)
- Punctual and reliable

Responsibilities

- Prepare a meal: breakfast or lunch. Provide entire meal using your personal funds
- Can eat with the Team Members and/or attend the teaching sessions, if desired
- Prepare mostly off site, but some last-minute preparations can take place on site
- Provide food, beverages, serving products, and eating products
- Meal options: purchase/do catering or prepare; bar-style service

Examples include:

- Prepare - taco bar, soup bar, salad bar, breakfast bar, pasta bar, baked potato bar, etc.
- Purchase - Chick-fil-a, Chipotle, Wild Eggs, Five Guys, etc.